Testimonial

Deal Direct Blinds have carried out a number of projects over recent years for Newcastle University and have always proved to be very reliable and good value for money.

In particular they have been involved in two larger window replacement projects at one of our accommodation sites. They were required to follow the window installers both refitting existing blinds and installing new. The projects involved several hundred windows and the programme was restricted to the summer vacation period when students were away.

Joanna and Ed Blackbird and their team provided exceptional performance and demonstrated willingness to operate flexible working patterns to ensure the work was completed to programme.

We would certainly use their services again and would recommend them to others as they have proved capable of delivering jobs of both domestic size and larger commercial scale.
